AGFUND was established in 1980 by the initiative of HRH the Late Prince Talal bin Abdulaziz with the support of the leaders of the Gulf Cooperation Council. AGFUND looks at the roots of human development problems, targeting all segments of society without any kind discrimination.

AGFUND works in the following programmes:

- AGFUND contributes to the achievement of the sustainable development agenda 2030 by supporting projects that meet its standards and through Prince Talal International Prize for Human Development.

AGFUND has established 5 specialized development organizations:

- Arab Council for Childhood and Development
- Arab Women Center for Training and Research
- Financial inclusion Banks: AGFUND has established 9 banks in the Arab region and Africa, which contribute to the achievement of sustainable development goals.
- Arab Open University
- Arab Network for NGOs.

AGFUND has partnerships with 444 international, regional, and governmental organizations.
